SOUTH AFRICAN VETERINARY COUNCIL

Title, name and surname

Prof Dr Daniel Nenene Qekwana

Qualifications

BSc, BVSc, MMedVet, PhD

Experience

I joined the Faculty of Veterinary Science at the University of Pretoria as a lecturer responsible for teaching, research, and community service in veterinary public health in 2008. Since then, I have also supervised postgraduate students and collaborated with other researchers both locally and internationally. I am currently part of the faculty management team.

Employment

I am an associate professor of veterinary epidemiology and public health at the Faculty of Veterinary Science, University of Pretoria, and Head of the Department of Paraclinical Sciences.

Specialisations/focus areas

I am a recognized specialist in veterinary public health registered with the South African Veterinary Council.

Reason for being on Council

I am passionate about service, leadership, and making a difference. Therefore, I am here to serve the profession and the public. In addition, to provide strategic support as the Council tries to respond to societal and professional challenges.

Professional bodies, membership, or boards you are currently involved in

South African Veterinary Association
The Southern African Society for Veterinary Epidemiology and Preventive Medicine
Black Veterinary Forum
Ministerial Advisory Committee on Antimicrobial Resistance (MAC-AMR).